COVID-19 vaccination camp

Date: 28.09.2021

On the 28th of September and the 2nd of October, 2021, the Government General Degree College, Kalna-I, successfully organized a COVID-19 vaccination camp. The event aimed to vaccinate students and staff members of the college, ensuring their safety amidst the ongoing pandemic. The camp was a collaborative effort, spearheaded by the NSS unit of the college, with substantial support from local medical staff.

Day : 28th September 2021

The first day of the camp saw a significant turnout. The college premises were well-prepared to manage the influx of participants. Registration desks were set up, and volunteers from the NSS unit assisted in the seamless flow of the process. Medical professionals administered the vaccines while adhering to all safety protocols.

Conclusion

The vaccination camp at Government General Degree College, Kalna-I, was a resounding success. It showcased the effective coordination between the NSS unit and medical staff, emphasizing the importance of community health and safety. These vaccination camps not only provided essential healthcare services but also promoted awareness about the importance of vaccination in combating the COVID-19 pandemic. The college administration expressed gratitude to all participants and volunteers, acknowledging their roles in making the event successful. The event is occurred in active collaboration with Kalna Sub Divisional, Super Speciality Hospital and the HOI. Heartful Thanks for their active support.

COVID-19 vaccination camp

Date: 02.10.2021

On the 28th of September and the 2nd of October, 2021, the Government General Degree College, Kalna-I, successfully organized a COVID-19 vaccination camp. The event aimed to vaccinate students and staff members of the college, ensuring their safety amidst the ongoing pandemic. The camp was a collaborative effort, spearheaded by the NSS unit of the college, with substantial support from local medical staff.

Day : 2nd October 2021

The second session of the camp coincided with Gandhi Jayanti, adding a sense of service and responsibility to the event. Similar to the first day, the organization was meticulous, ensuring minimal waiting time and maximum efficiency.

Conclusion

The vaccination camp at Government General Degree College, Kalna-I, was a resounding success. It showcased the effective coordination between the NSS unit and medical staff, emphasizing the importance of community health and safety. These vaccination camps not only provided essential healthcare services but also promoted awareness about the importance of vaccination in combating the COVID-19 pandemic. The college administration expressed gratitude to all participants and volunteers, acknowledging their roles in making the event successful. The event is occurred in active collaboration with Kalna Sub Divisional, Super Speciality Hospital and the HOI. Heartful Thanks for their active support.

COVID-19 vaccination camp

Date : 10.01.2022

On the 10.01.2022, the Government General Degree College, Kalna-I, successfully organized a COVID-19 vaccination camp. The event aimed to vaccinate students and staff members of the college, ensuring their safety amidst the on-going pandemic. The camp was a collaborative effort, spearheaded by the NSS unit of the college, with substantial support from local medical staff.

The final camp of vaccination was organized to provide 2nd doses to eligible individuals and ensure that everyone in the college community was fully vaccinated. The event was a success, with a high attendance rate, and it marked the culmination of the college's vaccination drive.

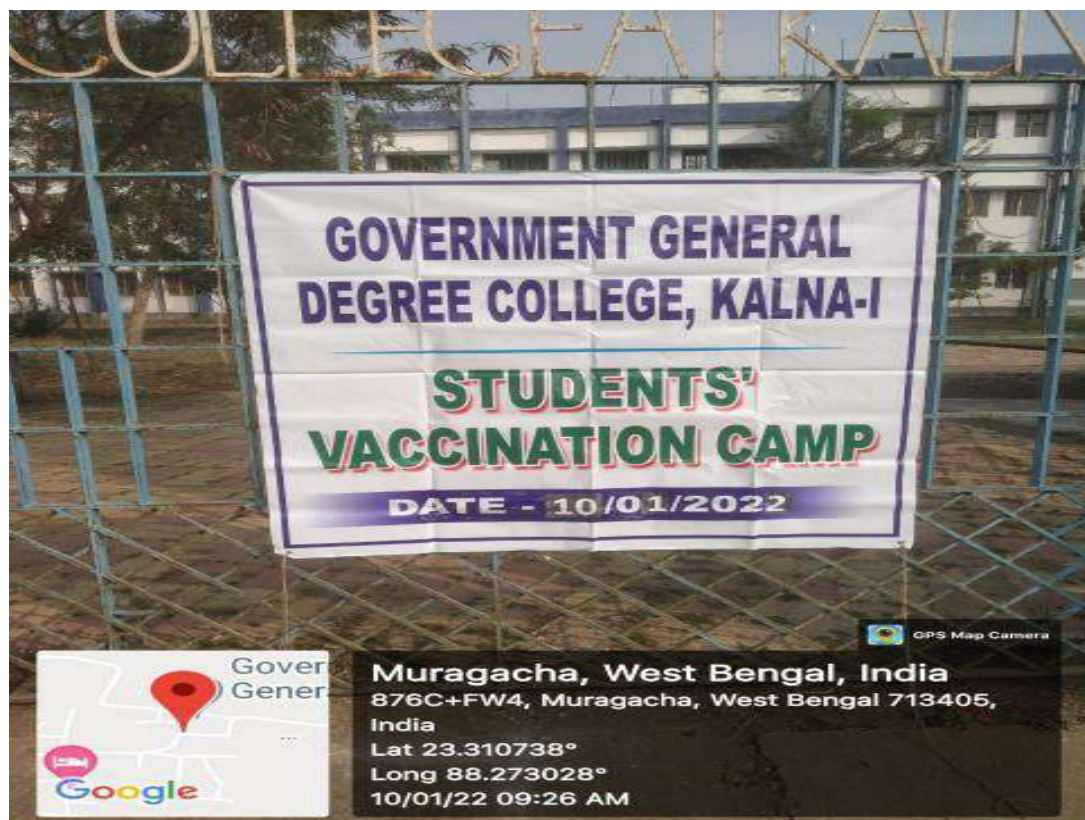

Conclusion

The vaccination camp at Government General Degree College, Kalna-I, was a resounding success. It showcased the effective coordination between the NSS unit and medical staff, emphasizing the importance of community health and safety. These vaccination camps not only provided essential healthcare services but also promoted awareness about the importance of vaccination in combating the COVID-19 pandemic. The college administration expressed gratitude to all participants and volunteers, acknowledging their roles in making the event successful. The event is occurred in active collaboration with Kalna Sub Divisional, Super Speciality Hospital and the HOI. Heartful Thanks for their active support.
